

Biography for Laura Smith, CLTC Regional Sales Consultant AGIS Network

Laura Smith is a Regional Sales Consultant for AGIS Network; one of the nation's leading brokerage firms that specialize in long term care and eldercare solutions. Heavily involved in Long Term Care since 2002, Laura has sold, implemented or consulted on a wide variety of cases in a myriad of industries.

In addition to personal production and implementation Laura has published and ghost written articles for industry and trade magazines assisting other producers in the industry learn more about long term care success strategies and challenges. Laura is certified as a CLTC which shows her continuing commitment to the long term care industry.